

To FCC Regulators:

I use the internet at home and I use a 56k modem at a low rate ($10 per month). At the current time, I have no desire to use cable ($50 per month) but may be forced to do so if the cable companies are allowed to monopolize internet communications. Please do not let any company monopolize these services. Thank you, JW.